Salaries from our conversations

Salary	Median	Typical range	Answers
Current salary with an employer in Luxembourg	€100,000	€84,000 to €124,000	19

Gross annual salary for full-time work, without bonuses or company car, as candidates told us in calls from June 2026 to November 2026. A 13th month counts when the candidate mentioned it. For expectations we count the minimum the candidate named, otherwise the lower end of the range. The typical range is the middle half of the answers.

How we count

Salaries from our recruiters' conversations with candidates from November 2024 to November 2026, 738 candidates with a countable statement across all occupations. Each candidate counts once with their latest statement, converted to gross per year at 40 hours a week. A figure appears only from 10 candidates. Official figures carry their source and date under their table.
